Statistical Report 2010

In 2010 131 new arbitration cases were instituted at the Danish Institute of Arbitration. The following graphical overviews offer insight into some statistical conditions regarding the activities, which have taken place at the institute during the recent years.

Cases in total, categorized - 2010

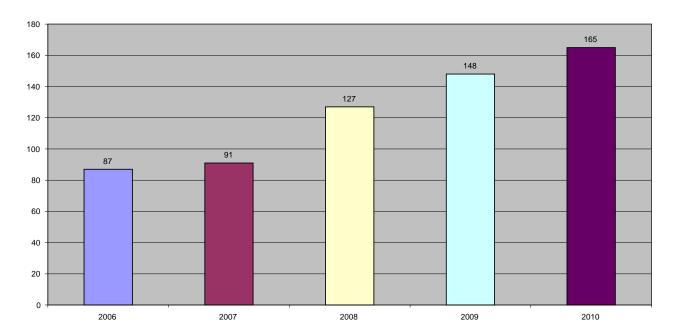

Cases in total, categorized - 2009

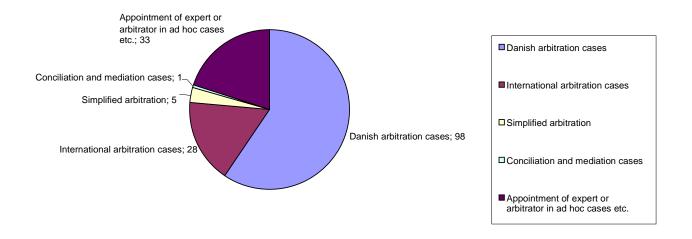

VOLDGIFTSINSTITUTTET

THE DANISH INSTITUTE OF ARBITRATION

Number of cases initiated in the period of 2006-2010

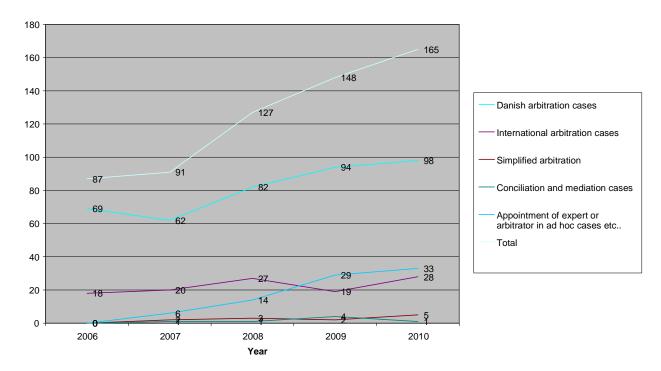

Classification of initiated cases in 2010

VOLDGIFTSINSTITUTTET

THE DANISH INSTITUTE OF ARBITRATION

Number of cases initiated in the period of 2006-2010

	2010
Nationality	of the	parties

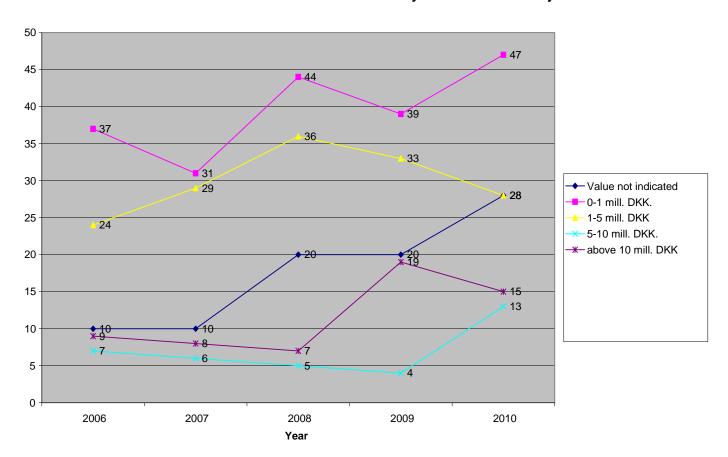

Nationality of the parties	•
Australia	1
British Virgin
Island	2
Cyprus	2
Denmark	371
England	3
France	1
Greece	1
Hong Kong	1
Island	2
Isle of Man	1
Luxembourg	1
Norway	2
Poland	2
Romania	1
Russia	1
Switzerland	9
Singapore	1
Sweden	7
Thailand	1
South Africa	1
Germany	1
USA	3

2009

Nationality of the parties

Denmark	306
Dubai	2
England	4
Finland	1
The Nederlands	3
Hong Kong	1
Ireland	1
Island	2
Korea	1
Norway	2
Romania	1
Spain	1
Sweden	2
The Chanel Island	1
Germany	5

Number of arbitration cases classified by the value of the subject matter

Awards and declarations

In 2010 40 awards were made, hereof 6 in international arbitration cases, and 15 declarations, all in Danish arbitration cases.

The average time of procedure for these cases is 11 months in arbitration cases, and 1 year and 6 months in international arbitration cases.

In 2009 41 awards and declarations were made, hereof 11 in international arbitration cases. The average time of procedure for the Danish arbitration cases is 1 year and 2 months, and 1 year and 7 months for the international arbitration cases.