

NYU-DIA-CBS Law Webinar

Evidence in International Arbitration

Thursday 30 June 2022

15:30 – 17:15 (CET) / 09:30 – 11:15 (NY Time)

About the Webinar

NYU's Center for Transnational Litigation, Arbitration, and Commercial Law, The Danish Institute of Arbitration and Copenhagen Business School – CBS Law will jointly host a webinar on 30 June 2022 from 15:30 – 17:15 (CET) / 09:30 – 11:15 (NY Time).

This event will discuss various perspectives regarding evidence in international arbitration, following the publication of the “Handbook of Evidence in International Arbitration: Key Issues and Concepts”.

Program

- Opening Remarks
Professor Franco Ferrari, NYU New York
- Introductory Remarks
Professor Peter Arnt Nielsen, CBS
- The Interplay Between the Post-award and the Pre-award Regimes with Respect to a Tribunal's Treatment of Evidentiary Issues
Dr Friedrich Rosenfeld, NYU Paris and HANEFELD, Hamburg
- Iura Novit Curia
Professor Giuditta Cordero-Moss, University of Oslo
- Tribunal-Appointed Experts in International Arbitration
Jonathan Lim, WilmerHale
- Costs and Other Sanctions
Hattie Middleditch, Sullivan & Cromwell
- The Danish perspective part 1
Kenneth Hvølplund Pedersen, Gorrissen Federspiel
- The Danish perspective part 2
Julie Arnth Jørgensen, Eastern High Court
- Closing Remarks
Secretary-General Steffen Pihlblad, DIA

Registration

This event is online, free of charge and open to all. Register in advance using the following link:

<https://cbs.nemtilmeld.dk/446/>

Speakers

Professor Franco Ferrari

NYU New York

Professor Franco Ferrari joined NYU School of Law as a full-time professor in the Fall of 2010, after serving as a professor of law at Verona University (2002-2016), Bologna University (1998-2002), and Tilburg University (1995-98).

Professor Ferrari, a former legal officer at the UN Office of Legal Affairs, works and does research in the areas of international commercial law, conflict of laws, comparative law, and international commercial arbitration. He also acts as an international arbitrator both in international commercial arbitrations and investment arbitrations.

Professor Peter Arnt Nielsen

Copenhagen Business School

Peter Arnt Nielsen is professor at CBS and external professor at the College of Europe, Bruges. He conducts research in and teaches Danish and international arbitration, mediation, and litigation, and Danish and international contract law.

Professor Nielsen is and has been member of several national and international legislative committees and working groups in the European Union and the Hague Conference for Private International Law. He is member of Groupe européen de droit international privé and the International Academy of Comparative Law. Peter Arnt Nielsen is also a Certified Arbitrator and Mediator as well as a Court Mediator.

Dr Friedrich Rosenfeld

NYU Paris and HANEFELD, Hamburg

Dr. Friedrich Rosenfeld is a Partner at HANEFELD, an arbitration boutique with offices in Hamburg and Paris. He has acted as counsel and arbitrator in cases involving a range of applicable substantive laws and seats (e.g. Austria, Denmark, England, Germany, Greece, Israel, Qatar, Switzerland, Turkey, and the United States).

Dr. Rosenfeld is also a Global Adjunct Professor at NYU Law in Paris, Visiting Professor at the International Hellenic University in Thessaloniki and Lecturer at Bucerius Law School in Hamburg.

Professor Giuditta Cordero-Moss

University of Oslo

Giuditta Cordero-Moss, Dr. juris (Oslo), PhD (Moscow), Professor, Oslo University, publishes and lectures in Norway and internationally within the fields of contract law, private international law and arbitration.

Former corporate lawyer, since 2002 arbitrator under the arbitration rules of numerous institutions and ad hoc. Professor Cordero-Moss is, inter alia: member of the Curatorium of the Hague Academy of International Law (since 2019); member of the ICC Court of Arbitration (since 2018); member of the Council, Arbitration Chamber of Milan (since 2017); member of the Board, Arbitration Institute, Oslo Chamber of Commerce (since 2010); former president (2017-20) and judge (2007-2020) of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development Administrative Tribunal; vice-president (since 2014) of the Board of Directors, Norwegian Financial Supervisory Authority; member (since 2015) of the Norwegian Tariff Board on general application of wage agreements.

Jonathan Lim

WilmerHale

Jonathan Lim is a triple-qualified English solicitor, Singapore advocate and New York lawyer with a focus on complex international disputes. He has particular experience with disputes in the energy, financial services, technology and telecommunications sectors, and has represented clients in commercial and investment treaty arbitrations in Asia, Africa, Europe and the Americas. He has also worked on WTO dispute settlement matters involving claims under multiple WTO agreements (including GATT, GATS, TRIPS, TBT and SCM) and is part of the team representing the government of Somalia in its WTO accession process.

Mr Lim has a developing practice as arbitrator and has received appointments as sole and party-appointed arbitrator in proceedings seated in Europe and Asia, including bilingual English-Chinese arbitrations and arbitrations governed by the CISG. He has also advised international organisations and governments in Africa and Asia on public international law issues and assisted with the drafting of legislation in Fiji, Iraq, Papua New Guinea, Somalia and Tonga. Mr Lim is also a Visiting Senior Fellow at the National University of Singapore, where he teaches a course on commercial and investment arbitration each year.

Hattie Middleditch

Sullivan & Cromwell

Hattie Middleditch is an Associate in the London office of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP. She holds an L.L.M. from New York University School of Law where she was recipient of a Graduate Dean Award and Convocation Prize in the International Business Regulation, Litigation and Arbitration program and is dual qualified (in England and Wales and the State of New York). Ms Middleditch was previously Judicial Assistant to Sir Terence Etherton (Court of Appeal of England and Wales) and has worked on international litigations, arbitrations, and criminal investigations in London, Paris, and New York.

Kenneth Hvelplund Pedersen

Gorrissen Federspiel

Kenneth Hvelplund Pedersen is a partner at Gorrissen Federspiel. He is much in demand for major and complex disputes before the courts and tribunals on behalf of both Danish and foreign companies. He has been involved in several of the largest Danish cases in recent years.

Mr Pedersen is a certified arbitrator and has broad experience as arbitrator in domestic and international cases. He has been a lecturer and examiner at the University of Copenhagen and is a frequent speaker and presenter on various legal topics revolving around inter alia commercial arbitration and dispute resolution.

Julie Arnth Jørgensen

Eastern High Court

Julie Arnth Jørgensen is a high court judge at the Eastern High Court of Denmark. She frequently also acts as arbitrator in national and international arbitrations. Before her appointment to the court she was a lawyer specialising in dispute resolution and represented clients in a broad range of litigation and arbitration cases. She holds an LL.M. from New York University School of Law (2008).

Secretary-General Steffen Pihlblad

The Danish Institute of Arbitration

Steffen Pihlblad has been Secretary-General of the Danish Institute of Arbitration since 2006, and has experience as arbitrator in institutional (ICC) and ad hoc arbitrations. He has taught on the arbitrator training course of the Danish Bar and Law Society since 2006 and he has been examiner for Danish law examinations since 2014.

Previously, Mr Pihlblad was Deputy Secretary-General of the Danish Bar and Law Society, attorney at Bech-Bruun and Head of Section in the Danish Ministry of Justice.

Mr Pihlblad is the author of several articles and co-author of books on arbitration, and has held several lectures on domestic and international arbitration in Denmark and abroad.